Conflict of interest requirements

A conflict of interest exists if authors or their institutions have financial or personal relationships with other people or organisations that could inappropriately influence (bias) their actions. Financial relationships are easily identifiable, but conflicts can also occur because of personal relationships, academic competition, or intellectual passion.

(<http://www.wma.net/en/30publications/10policies/i3/>)

Adopted by the 60th WMA General Assembly, New Delhi, India, October 2009.

2012 World Medical Association, Inc.

All submissions to Medicina Oral Patología Oral y Cirugía Bucal must include disclosure of all relationships that could be viewed as presenting a potential conflict of interest.

- At the end of the text, under a subheading "Conflicts of interest", all authors must disclose any financial and personal relationships with other people or organisations that could inappropriately influence (bias) their work. Examples of financial conflicts include employment, consultancies, stock ownership, honoraria, paid expert testimony, patents or patent applications, and travel grants, all within 3 years of beginning the work submitted. If there are no conflicts of interest, authors should state that.
- All authors are required to provide a signed statement of their conflicts of interest as part of the author statement form.
